Sunday 19th January 2025

This Sunday we think about the celebration of the Wedding that Jesus with his family and friends were invited to at Cana in Galilee.

It's the beginning of his ministry – and although not many of the huge number of visitors there may have realised, Jesus turned this regular wedding celebration into something extraordinary.

Jesus famously said that he had come that we may have life – and have it abundantly – “in all its fullness”. Are we always aware of this kind of abundance of life that God has for us and longs to bring to our everyday lives, relationships and experiences?

Do we always stop and look for the extraordinary in the ordinary?

Where is Jesus doing the extraordinary in our own ordinary lives, our Church and our communities today?

For Prayer

... during these weeks of Epiphany:

Almighty God,
in Christ you make all things new :
transform the poverty of our nature
by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives
make known your heavenly glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

*... for those unwell in body,
mind or spirit:*

Lord Christ, shine upon all who are in the darkness of suffering, anxiety or grief, that in your light they may receive hope and courage,
in your mercy obtain comfort and relief,
and in your presence find rest and peace. Amen

... and for God's blessing to be on all who live in Blandford Mews and Botany.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us. Amen

Early Holy Communion

From February, the early Holy Communion service on the first and third Sunday will move to the new start time of 8.30am.

Enjoy a coffee after Sunday service?

Ever wondered who makes the coffee ready for refreshments after Sunday service? You may be surprised to find we don't have coffee elves working away in the kitchen. We are very grateful to everyone who steps in to serve coffee after the service and could do with a few more people to set up and put the coffee on prior to the service. If you think you could spare 20 minutes every so often, please speak to Phil or Pam and we'll sign you up.

Julie

Fancy your hand as Gordon Ramsey?

The youth team could do with a hand in the kitchen on a Tuesday evening to cook and serve the youth their hot meal. Full oven training will be given. The youth are grateful for their meals which can be something with chips, jacket potato and cheese etc. Cooking not your thing? There's always the washing up and clearing away the meal afterwards! Speak to Bella or Jo if you think you can help on the odd Tuesday.

Eco Tip

In the kitchen

When making a cup of tea, only boil the amount of water that you need. You waste electricity (and money) heating water you won't use.
